ening to brain him with his club if he resisted.

The only charge against Avery this morning was one of disturbing the public peace, preferred by the officer, but before Justice "Goetting arrived Mrs. Avery took out a warrant charging her husband with assault, and he was held on that charge.

Avery is the young man who created excitement in the Grand Theatre. Williamsburg, last week. He had agreed to stand un before a member of the Ernest Roeber Specialty Company for four rounds, and finding that he was getting the worst of it suddenly cried "foul!" and threw off his gloves, while a number of his supporters endeavored to swarm on the stage, but were prevented by the dropping of the curtain.

After the show was over a howling mob awaited at the stage door, prepared to attack the man who had bested" Avery when he came out, and police had to be called upon to clear the street.
